Spatial Intelligence

Description

Spatial intelligence includes the ability to identify objects accurately, change and recreate images, and recognize how shapes and objects relate to each other. While this intelligence is typically applied through visual means, spatial intelligence does not only rely on vision. It can also be used through touch and sometimes even hearing.

Famous People with Strong Spatial Intelligence:

- Frank Lloyd Wright (architect, interior designer)
- Michelangelo (artist, engineer)
- Steven Spielberg (film director, video game designer)
- Vera Wang (fashion designer)
- Christopher Columbus (explorer, navigator)
