Friday Notes

Principal's Corner

What a week! Late May always seems like the perfect time for our sixth graders to take their first official group trip to the junior high school as they continued the transition process this week. Thank you to our third grade team, Dr. Dawkins, Ms. Manning, and Mr. Farmer, with help from Ms. Kleiner, Ms. Martin, Ms. Tassani, and Ms. Fastuca, for the International Day festivities that took place on Wednesday. Also, thank you to all of our parents who supported our learners who each represented a different country of the world. Thursday marked our second joint recess of 2nd and 3rd grade boys and girls, many of whom participated in yoga during recess. One more yoga session will be offered on June 19th for our parents as well. Stay tuned for more information to follow. Thank you to Mr. Homer and the SWWAT (Students Waging War Against Tobacco) Team who visited West Side this week. They presented to our 5th and 6th graders about the dangers of tobacco. Fourth graders buckled down for part one of the New York State Science Assessment which took place on Thursday. Field Day came at just the right time as the culminating event of the week. Thank you to Mr. Yost who planned a wonderful day for our students. Also, thank you to Mrs. Munyai and our parent volunteers. Thank you to Mr. Bauer and Mr. McCauley for your work on the grill and to the PTG for providing our annual BBQ lunch. Special thanks to our 6th graders who ran the activities for the first time ever. You demonstrated leadership, patience, and the spirit of West Side!
