

The Friday Notes

Celebrating 225 years!
October 24, 2014

Principal's Corner

One needs to look no further than our school to see the power of commitment. Over the last week, the West Side community was involved in several events which took a tremendous amount of preparation. Last Friday night, the Vardy-Stearn Family hosted this year's West Side Win. It was truly a wonderful time! Thank you for opening your doors and allowing our community to come together. This week, students in each grade took time out of their daily schedules to find new and powerful books to read while they shopped at the annual Book Fair. Books ranged from different series such as the Magic Tree House to authors such as James Patterson. As students shuffled around and compared titles with their friends, parents assisted with book selection. While the students enjoyed the Book Fair, it was exciting to see our parents involved in the process of choosing a meaningful book. Thank you to Mrs. DeMarco and committee members for another successful event. Tonight West Siders have an opportunity, thanks again to the West Side School PTG, to socialize with their peers at the Halloween Dance. While it provides an opportunity for our students to meet up with their friends, it also affords parents the opportunity to meet new people. Students have been buzzing about tonight for the last couple of weeks and it promises to be a great time. How fortunate our students are to belong to a school environment that truly embraces the community spirit!

Looking forward to seeing everyone this evening!

Halloween

With Halloween around the corner, please remember that all celebrations in the classrooms will go through the teachers and class parents. We are asking everyone to honor the District's nutrition policy by not serving any candy, soda, or artificial sweetener. In addition, students should check with their classroom teachers about costumes. No costumes should be worn to school on Friday morning. Thank you for your cooperation.
