

The Friday Notes

Celebrating 227 Years!
January 13, 2017

Principal's Corner

Today we kicked off our growth mindset video series during morning assembly. Throughout the winter months, the 6th graders utilized the wireless technology in the building to make videos reminding their classmates of the importance of a positive work ethic, perseverance, and grit. Over the next few weeks we will highlight the rest of their videos during morning assembly for all to see. Thank you in advance to all of our students for your collaboration, creativity and enthusiasm. As the week came to a close, our 5th and 6th graders held their last dress rehearsal for this year's winter concert. They are looking forward to performing for our entire school on Tuesday and for parents and family members Tuesday night at 7:00 PM at the Performing Arts Center. All are invited to the evening show! Finally, congratulations to Alex Bauer who was recognized this week in front of his peers for logging the most minutes of independent reading in the LightSail Reading Challenge. He, along with his classmates, has helped to keep the 4th grade in the lead. This has created some friendly competition among our students and we look forward to next week to see if our 5th and 6th graders can reclaim the number one spot on the leaderboard. Keep up the great effort!

When possible, we will be taking our students out for recess during the winter months. Please remind your child that he or she must wear a jacket. In addition, shorts will not be permitted. Students will always have the option to stay in on colder days.
