

The Friday Notes

Celebrating 227 Years!
June 16, 2017

Principal's Corner

This week we welcomed our incoming parents at the Second Grade Parent Orientation. Thank you to the following students who gave tours to the newest members of our learning community: Michael Gallagher, Izzy Henick, Daniel Wright, Matt Gileno, Hailey Jo Rosato, Amberly Szczerbiak, Summer Schwartz, Henry Kitchin, and Kati Cotek. Our sixth graders met up with their peers from Lloyd Harbor at the annual Unity Dance. They also had the opportunity to reconnect with last year's sixth graders as well. Thank you to the junior high for hosting. Third graders invited parents to their Poetry Café. Thank you to all who attended and to all of our students who shared such wonderful pieces of poetry. On Thursday, our sixth graders took their annual trip to Crestwood where they met up with their friends from Lloyd Harbor once again. During the day, they participated in various activities outdoors. What a day! Fourth graders took their annual field trip to Philadelphia on Friday. These fourth graders put in a tremendous amount of time preparing itineraries for the day. We are looking forward to hearing about your trip next week! Finally, I want to congratulate all of our learners who gave Student Council speeches earlier in the week. We are all so impressed with your preparation and willingness to be a leader in our school. Winners will be announced next week.
