

Team Expectations

MRS. HAYES, MS. OSHAN, MRS. ROVERE, MR. SCHIFFMACHER, MRS. PICKERING, MRS. GOLDTHWAITE

Homework Policy:

- Good News! Your homework average is starting off as 100%.
- Bad News! You will lose 5 points from your average for each missing homework.
- Additional collected assignments will be graded according to your teacher's grading policy.
- NO LATE HOMEWORK will be accepted! However, it is recommended that all missed homework is made up. Homework is a great review of the day's lesson.
- After 3 consecutive missing homework assignments, teachers will call home.

Test and Quiz Policy:

- Quizzes will take place on any day and will last 20 or fewer minutes.
- Tests will be given on each teacher's testing day and will last the full period
 - Ms. Oshan- Tuesday
 - Mr. Schiffmacher- Wednesday
 - Mrs. Hayes- Thursday
 - Mrs. Rovere- Friday
- ALL tests must be signed by a parent or guardian- This will count as HW assignment.

Absence Policy:

Student Responsibilities	Absence Rules
1) Find a homework buddy!! You should call a friend when you are out to find out what homework was assigned.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• 1 day out → 1 day to make up work (including tests and quizzes)• 2 days out → 2 days to make up work (including tests and quizzes)• 3 days or more → meet with teachers
2) Each classroom will have a folder with worksheets handed out each day. YOU must go and collect and worksheets from the day(s) you were out.
3) If you know you will be out, talk to your teacher before your will be out to collect work you will miss.

Agenda:

As your student responsibilities increase, you need to learn how to keep track of your work and assignments. You will receive a homework agenda which YOU MUST USE!! Your homework will be written in every class. If you have no homework, you write "none." No space should ever be left blank. There will be surprise agenda checks throughout the year that will count toward your homework grade.

Parents/Guardians: The agenda is the absolute best way to keep up with your child's daily and long term assignments. There should never be a reason why the agenda is left blank. The agenda can also be used as a communication tool between school and home. Please stress the importance of the use of the agenda at home.

Classroom Expectations:

1) Class begins when the bell rings. You must:

- a. Be in your seat
- b. Have your agenda out, and be copying the HW
- c. Have the previous night's HW out and ready to be checked.
- d. BE PREPARED!! You must have a notebook/binder and writing utensil out and ready to use!
- e. If you have a pass to go to an appointment, you MUST go to the classroom first and show your teacher the pass!

2) Be respectful and kind. You must:

- a. Raise your hand when you want to contribute.
- b. Actively listen to all teachers and students.
- c. Contribute positively to the classroom environment.

Consequences When Expectations Are Not Met:

If you do not live up to the team expectation, the following will occur:

- 1) Verbal Warning
- 2) Lunch Detention and a call home
- 3) Administrative Action

Student Name _____

Student Signature _____

Parent/Guardian Signature _____