Weekly Notes- June 17, 2016

Dear Parents,

Today was a very special day for our first graders and their families. Thank you to all of our teachers and staff members for making the day so memorable for our students. Thank you also, to the GPFA Committee, chaired by Mrs. Mavronicolas, for all your hard work. Our families enjoyed the reception and the children loved the celebratory pizza luncheon. Thank you to our kindergarten parents for hosting the reception. We are so fortunate to have such a supportive and generous parent community.

On Tuesday, the children will enjoy a Story Faces performance, courtesy of the Cultural Arts Committee, chaired by Mrs. Melendez. Please note: Volunteers will be selected from the audience as part of the show. The volunteers will have their faces painted! While all of the make-up is non-toxic, meets all safety standards, and washes off easily, we want parents to have the opportunity to ask that their child not be chosen to participate. If you do not want your child to have his/her face painted, please send a note to your child's teacher by Tuesday morning.

Here are some important reminders about the last week of school:
