

Dear Parents,

Monday is Moving-Up Day, a very special day for our first graders and their families. Our GPFA Moving-Up Committee, chaired by Mrs. Newman and Mrs. Vivalo, is hard at work preparing for the day. Our families will enjoy a reception following each ceremony, hosted by our kindergarten parents. The children will have a celebratory pizza luncheon that afternoon, courtesy of the GPFA. We are so fortunate to have such a supportive and generous parent community.

Following the Moving-Up Ceremony, parents are invited to view the beautiful artwork of our first grade students. You will be very impressed with the quality and creativity on display!

On Tuesday, the children will enjoy a performance of Aladdin and His Wonderful Lamp, thanks to the Cultural Arts Committee, chaired by Mrs. Light. Wednesday will be Silly Day, when the children are invited to be creative and playful---perhaps wearing a silly shirt, hat, or hairstyle. (no face or hair paint, please) This was the idea of Riley Mullen, in Ms. Villa's class, and seconded by Summer Brizuela, in Mrs. Cooper's class.
