

Interactive Reading Websites

The websites listed below offer a variety of literacy activities covering a wide age and/or grade span.

Book Adventure: <http://www.bookadventure.com>

A free website geared towards kindergarten, first and second grade students. It contains exciting interactive books and phonics games.

Scholastic: <http://www.scholastic.com/kids/home.htm>

This website offers book reviews from students, book excerpts, and games.

Reading is Fundamental: <http://www.rif.org/readingplanet>

"Reading is Fundamental" (RIF) sponsors this website. It consists of games and activities to encourage reading among children 6-15.

Eduplace: <http://www.eduplace.com>

Click on STUDENTS. On the bottom of the page are different domains: Wacky Web Tales, Current Events, Brain Teasers, Using the Web, Games

Reading Rockets: <http://www.readingrockets.org/>

Reading Rockets offers reading strategies, lessons, and activities designed to help young children learn reading skills.

Read, Write, Think: <http://www.readwritethink.org/beyondtheclassroom/summer/>
Summer literacy activities K-12

PBS Kids: <http://pbskids.org/stopandgo/>

Children can write the ending to stories on their own or with the help of a character.

Spin and Spell: <http://www.spinandspell.com/>

An interactive spelling game for word recognition and spelling practice.

Gamequarium: <http://www.gamequarium.com>

Scroll midway down this webpage. There are many different activities for PreK – Grade 6.

Fun Brain: <http://www.funbrain.com/brain/ReadingBrain/ReadingBrain.html>

Educational games, online books, and comics

National Geographic: <http://kids.nationalgeographic.com/kids/>

National Geographic Explorer For Kids is a online version of the award winning magazine.

On-line Children's Booklists

The websites below offer book recommendations, booklists, and/or book reviews.

<http://www.kidsreads.com>

Helps children select books that appeal to them by offering kid friendly reviews and information about books.

<http://www.thereadingnook.com>

This website will help find developmentally appropriate children's books and games or a children's book related to a favorite subject!

http://www.reading.org/resources/tools/choices\_childrens.html

This is a booklist with a twist: Children themselves evaluate the books, and provide reviews of their favorites.

<http://www.pbskids.org/readingrainbow/books>

Children can listen to book reviews by other children and rate books they read

<http://www.booksforboys.com>

Book recommendations geared towards boys; age ranges 6 – 15 years and up.

<http://www.readkiddoread.com>

This is James Patterson's website dedicated to "making kids readers for life." Books are reviewed and interviews are posted with such authors as Jeff Kinney and Rick Riordan.

<http://www.ala.org/ala/mgrps/divs/alsc/initiatives/kidscampaign/kidstoolkit.cfm>

This Association for Library Services webpage is designed for children and parents with links to recommended book lists and online games and puzzles.

Reading App Suggestions (Fees vary for each App)

E-Skills Learning:
Reading
Comprehension
Practice

Practice
with Sight
Words

Scholastic
Reading
Timer

Read me stories

Good Reads Book
Recommendations

Spelling
Practice