Dear Community Member:

On Thursday afternoon, March 24, 2011, I received a call from the Nassau County Police Department informing me that one of our substitute teachers at the Junior/Senior High School, Mr. Michael Kramer, had been arrested at his home and charged with possession of images of child pornography and that he had also utilized an online file sharing website to promote images of child pornography. As a result, Mr. Kramer has immediately been placed on unpaid suspension pending the outcome of the charges.

A review of our school technology systems reveals no improper use of computers on school property, nor is Mr. Kramer being charged with any direct solicitation for the purpose of promoting child pornography. Obviously, the District will be following this investigation carefully. Please be assured that Mr. Kramer has been denied access to Cold Spring Harbor school property, personnel and families.

Sincerely,

Judith A. Wilansky, Ed.D.
Superintendent of Schools
