In the Spotlight : Anti-Bullying Day at MSG

On Tuesday, May 24th fifth graders boarded the LIRR, some for the first time, to travel into Penn Station to see the NY Liberty Women's Basketball Team play against Atlanta Dream at Madison Square Garden. This wasn't just an ordinary basketball game though. It was "School Day" and there was an amazing Anti-Bullying half-time presentation. Aija Mayrock, the author of The Survival Guide to Bullying, rapped about her experiences with bullying and how she survived the ordeal. Only a teenager when she wrote her book, she impressed and awed the audience of several hundred children and adults. Although NY Liberty lost their home game 75-85, fifth graders had a day filled with memorable experiences. They learned how to navigate the LIRR and Penn Station, how to behave and interact as a fan at MSG, and most importantly, they learned there are people who have been bullied, and have risen above the rest. As our special shirts read... With us, No Bullies Allowed (WNBA)!
