Our Thursday Peer Mentors read the following message on LHTV Morning News in celebration of the upcoming holiday:

Thanksgiving is next week. Have you thought about what you are thankful for? There's no one right thing to be thankful for, but if it involves another person, have you told them? Remember that 'The Amazing KAP' understands the power of kindness, caring or altruism and the power to make others smile. If you take the time to thank another person for doing something special for you, then you are being kind, caring, and may even make them smile. It's fun to see how powerful kind words can be. Give it a try!

Happy Thanksgiving to all our families. We give thanks for the many blessings we enjoy and thank the Student Council for Stock The Shelves, a food collection for the homeless shelters.

SIT (School Improvement Team) is working on some great new initiatives this year and, from time to time, will give you a report in the Friday Notes. One goal we are excited about is continuing our work to enhance the food in the café. Last year, we worked on our meat choices. On November 17, the "CSH Burger" listed on the menu consisted of meat from a local Catskill farm (Slope Farms) that is made from all natural grass fed beef. It was served on a whole-grain bun! Moving forward, this will be the burger that is being offered on the elementary school menu. Enjoy your lunch!

ARTIST CORNER

Congratulations to our artists of the month Mackenzie McGraw and Hunter Yulico!

SWITCHING BUSES FOR PLAYDATES!
