To All Our Six Grade Families:

Its time to start the search for pictures! Lisa Paris and I, along with our committee, are very excited to be putting together the Class of 2012 yearbook but we need your help. We realize looking for pictures is very time-consuming, but it is so important to each child to see themselves in their yearbook. Our goal is to have each child represented in at least 2 to 4 candid shots. To try to make the search process a little easier, I am listing the events that the children have participated in from second grade to the present.

2nd Grade

Farm Trip
Community Helper Project
Symbols of America
Atlantis Aquarium Trip
Whaling Museum

3rd Grade

Wax Museum

4th Grade

Colonial Day
Philadelphia Trip
Lloyd Manor Trip

5th Grade

Oyster Bay Boat Trip
Immigration Day
Annie

There are also some events listed below that the children participate in each year. Please send in those pictures as well, because we will try to dedicate pages to each event, if we have enough photos.

Apple Fun Run
Spring and Winter Concerts
Science Fair
Field Day
Halloween (trunk or treat/fall festival)

6th Grade Activities

If you also have any other candid shots of your children at school with friends or teachers please send them in clearly labeled with grade and activity (i.e. lunch room).

Our deadline for the photos is Friday, January 20th. You can submit photos to either Lisa Paris (llparis5@aol.com) or Julie Ross (alarconross@aol.com) or you can send in hard copies or CDs (clearly labeled) via Samantha Paris' or Emily Ross' backpack (Mr. O'Rourke's class).

We are looking forward to getting a ton of pictures and putting together a truly memorable yearbook.
