

The Living Environment Classroom Discipline Plan

Mrs. Villanti

Dear Parent / Gaurdian,

I am delighted that _____ is in my class this year. We can all look forward to many exciting and rewarding experiences as the year progresses. As I firmly believe that life-long success depends on self-discipline, I have developed a classroom discipline plan that affords every student the opportunity to manage his or her own behavior. Your child deserves the most positive educational climate possible for academic growth. Therefore, this plan will be in effect at all times.

CLASSROOM RULES:

1. You must be in your seat when the bell rings. Your notebook should be open and you should copy and complete the DO NOW when assigned.
2. You must have your notebook in class everyday.
3. Homework is due on the day you are instructed to complete the work. If it is not handed in on time you will receive a zero. If you are absent, call a classmate or e-mail me to find out what assignments you missed. It is your responsibility to make-up the class work.
4. Remain seated and quiet from the late bell to the dismissal bell. (Note: The dismissal bell is for me. I will dismiss you. No one should get out of his/her seat until told to do so.)
5. If you wish to ask or answer a question please RAISE YOUR HAND. I cannot hear or answer more than one question at a time.
6. You are responsible for all work missed due to absence. Please make sure all late work is handed to me directly. If you miss an exam due to a legal absence, you will be expected to take the exam the day you return to school. If you miss an exam due to a cut, you receive a zero for that test.
7. There is No gum chewing, eating or drinking in class.
8. Extra help times will be announced in class.
9. No Cursing is allowed under any circumstances. Let's respect each other. If someone is talking, we will ALL listen attentively. No one likes to be ignored.

CONSEQUENCES FOR INAPPROPRIATE CLASS BEHAVIOR:

Individual infractions (first time)
Individual infractions (repeated problems)
Continued misconduct

Detention (no exceptions will be given)
Detention and calls home.
