

Beware of ambiguity!!! Be clear and succinct. Your words are a tool for the grader to help understand the images.

In narrowing down your concentration...

1-List on paper 10 ideas of what your concentration might be

What are your favorite things? Favorite artist? Favorite work of art?
Movies? Most successful art pieces? Favorite places to go? What makes you tick? What are the experiences that have changed you?

2-Read aloud your top choices

3-Talk about ideas with greater or lesser qualities

4-Research 3 artists with a similar focus. Print examples.

5-Do a sample piece of what you think your choice might be

6-Write up a final proposal. I will be looking at these and will send you off with revisions. Of extreme importance is your topic sentence! My concentration is...
Don't be too wordy. Be clear and to the point.

7-After accepted proposal, begin actual body of work.

8-Review pieces. Where did you begin, how did you evolve, where did you end?
