

On-line Children's Booklists

The websites below offer book recommendations, booklists, and/or book reviews written by students. For the Lloyd Harbor Booklist, please refer to the district website at www.csh.k12.ny.us under Lloyd Harbor/Home Communications.

<http://www.kidsreads.com>

Helps children select books that appeal to them by offering kid friendly reviews and information about books.

<http://www.guysread.com>

Author Jon Scieszka makes suggestions for a literacy program that connects boys with books they want to read.

<http://www.thereadingnook.com>

This website will help find developmentally appropriate children's books and games or a children's book related to a favorite subject!

http://www.reading.org/resources/tools/choices_childrens.html

This is a booklist with a twist: Children themselves evaluate the books, and provide reviews of their favorites.

<http://www.pbskids.org/readingrainbow/books>

Children can listen to book reviews by other children and rate books they read

<http://www.booksforboys.com>

Book recommendations geared towards boys; age ranges 6 - 15 years and up.

<http://www.readkiddoread.com>

This is James Patterson's website dedicated to "making kids readers for life." Books are reviewed and interviews are posted with such authors as Jeff Kinney and Rick Riordan.

<http://www.ala.org/ala/mgrps/divs/alsc/initiatives/kidscampaign/kidstoolkit.cfm>

This Association for Library Services webpage is designed for children and parents with links to recommended book lists and online games and puzzles.