1. Heckscher Family Hour

Sunday, January 8th at 10:30am

Families with children ages 5 to 10 are invited for an art experience with Museum Educator Tami Wood. Participants will have the Museum all to themselves before it opens to the public. This exclusive time slot provides families with the opportunity to spread out and enjoy an interactive family-friendly tour of the Museum's latest exhibition as well as hands-on art-making in the galleries. Registration is limited to ensure a small group size.
